

How to Have a Successful Meal Experience

Master the social side of business by experiencing all the elements necessary for a successful business meal. This includes everything from ordering from the menu and managing awkward moments (or mishaps) to engaging in table conversation.

Whether you are the host or guest, this seminar focuses on every aspect of dining from coffee cafes and business (or interview) meals to celebration dinners. Experience the learning with a tutorial meal that gives you an opportunity to experience every facet of dining decorum and protocols.

The information was insightful, and your enthusiastic delivery was appreciated. You are extremely professional and very knowledgeable in your craft! You definitely made an impact on our students and provided skills that we will be able to apply to our everyday life.

—Kawana Williams, Florida State University College of Business

A sampling of Florida State University student responses:

- “I feel as if I am better prepared to take on an interview meal. The event was amazing, and everyone needs to experience a lesson like the one that was given!”
- “One of the best things I have done in college. Very well put together. The etiquette dinner was excellent and far beyond my expectations.”
- “I am really glad that I attended this event, since it showed me the importance of making the right impression in situations where anxiety might get in my way.”

A Business Meal is Part Meal and Part Opportunity

Bring this seminar to your organization

Contact Gloria for details

gloria@gloriapetersen.com

